LIBRARY BOARD OF TRUSTEES AND EMPLOYEE

CODE OF ETHICS AND CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

The Library Board of Trustees recognizes that sound, ethical standards of conduct serve to increase the effectiveness of the Library Board of Trustees, Library staff and volunteers. Actions based on an ethical code of conduct promote public confidence and the attainment of library goals. The Board also recognizes its obligation, under the provisions of the New York General Municipal Law, to adopt a code of ethics setting forth the standards of conduct required of all library officers and employees.

The Library Board of Trustees is also committed to avoiding any situation in which the existence of simultaneous, conflicting interests of any Library officer or employee may call into question the integrity of the management or operation of the library. The Board affirms its commitment to adhere scrupulously to all applicable provisions of law regarding material conflicts of interest.

1. Gifts: No officer or employee shall directly or indirectly solicit, accept, or receive any money or gift having a value of $75 or more, whether in the form of cash, check, loan, credit, services, travel, entertainment, hospitality or promise, or any other form, under circumstances in which it could reasonably be inferred that the money or gift was intended to influence him or her in the performance of his or her official duties or was intended as a reward for any official action on his or her part. However, the Board welcomes and encourages the writing of letters or notes expressing gratitude or appreciation to staff members.
2. Confidential Information: No officer or employee shall disclose confidential information acquired by him or her in the course of his or her official duties or use such information to further his or her personal interest.

All Library employees shall treat such information as confidential and shall not directly or indirectly disseminate, disclose, or otherwise make available any such information or any portion thereof to any entity or person other than an employee of the Library with the need to know such information or as otherwise directed by the Library. All employees must also take reasonable precautions to prevent any unauthorized use or disclosure of confidential information.

In addition, he or she shall not disclose information regarding any matters discussed in an executive session of the Board of Trustees regardless of whether or not such information is deemed confidential.

The term “interest” means a pecuniary or material benefit accruing to an officer or employee.

6. Disclosure of Interests in Contracts: To the extent known, any officer or employee of the Library who has, or will have, or subsequently acquires any interest in any contract with the Library shall publicly disclose the nature and extent of such interest in writing to the Library as well as to the Library Director as soon as he or she has knowledge of such actual or prospective interest.

7. Investments in Conflict with Official Duties: No officer or employee of the Library shall invest or hold any investment directly or indirectly in any financial, business, commercial or other private transaction that creates a conflict with his or her official duties.

9. 10. Certain Prohibited Actions: No person employed by the Library shall hire, supervise, evaluate, promote, review or discipline any other employee who is a member of the same family. This shall not bar or prevent the timely filing by a present or former Library officer or employee of any claim, account, demand or suit against the Library on his or her own behalf or on behalf of any member of his or her family arising out of any personal injury or property damage or for any lawful benefit authorized or permitted by law.

13. Use of Library Property: No Library officer or employee shall use or permit the use of property, owned or leased to the library, for anything other than the official purposes or for activities not otherwise officially approved by the Library Board of Trustees.

Acknowledgment

The standard of behavior at the Seaford Public Library is that all officers and employees, whether paid or unpaid, scrupulously avoid any conflict of interest between the interests of the Seaford Public Library on the one hand, and their personal, professional, and business interests on the other. This includes avoiding actual conflicts of interest as well as potential and perceived conflicts of interest.

I understand that the purposes of this policy are to protect the integrity of the Seaford Public Library decision-making process, to enable Library constituents to have confidence in the Library's integrity, and to protect the integrity and reputation of all Library officers and employees both paid and unpaid.

Upon or before election, hiring or appointment, I will make a full disclosure of any and all interests, relationships, and holdings that do create or could potentially create a conflict of interest. This written disclosure will be kept on file and I will update it as appropriate.

During the course of meetings and activities, I will disclose any interests in a transaction or decision where I (including my business and any other nonprofit affiliation), my family and/or significant other, employer, or close associates will receive a benefit or gain. After disclosure, I understand that I will be asked to leave the room for the discussion and will not be permitted to vote on the question.

I understand that this policy is meant to be a supplement to good judgment, and I will respect its spirit as well as its wording.
