Welcome!

I am delighted to welcome you to the 2019 Saskatchewan Libraries Conference. We have all experienced the power libraries have to transform lives, empower people, and strengthen communities through diverse educational, cultural, and leisure experiences. This year, we celebrate the impact of libraries as resources for lifelong learning with our conference theme, 'Libraries Transform!' Illuminating this theme are keynote speakers Jack Saddleback and Monique Woroniak, and Mary Donaldson Memorial Lecture speaker Zarqa Nawaz.

We are trying some new things this year...

We kick off a day early with a pre-conference workshop. Delivered by Saskatchewan Future 40 Winner Stephanie Young, the workshop introduces participants to service design thinking in libraries.

The 'Research Stream' will have sessions on conducting, consulting, or using research in practice. Librarian-researchers will not want to miss Kirstin Hoffmann's featured presentation, where she'll serve up some practical advice on incorporating more research into your work.

There will be many opportunities to socialize this year. In fact, we are already one event down! May 1st, an evening tour of Rogue Taproom was arranged for early arrivals and pre-conference attendees interested in networking and local brewing.

Thursday's Exhibitor Hall Social includes refreshments and prizes in the Hilton Garden Inn Saskatoon Downtown North Room at 4:00 PM. Later in the evening, we will have the Mary Donaldson Lecture, followed by the President's Reception.

Early risers will be rewarded with prize giveaways over breakfast, while the annual Awards Luncheon will celebrate library leaders within our community.

As you may have noticed, the conference planning committee has focused on sustainability. We have streamlined the process of theme and logo development by adopting the Saskatchewan Library Week theme. Conference swag has been limited to bags and lanyards, and given a uniform design.

I would like to thank the conference planning committee. It has truly been a pleasure working with all of you. I am tremendously grateful for your hard work and dedication over the past year. Together, we have organized events and activities that are sure to inform, inspire, influence, and (we hope) entertain.

Finally, I would like to extend my appreciation to the speakers, panelists, exhibitors, sponsors, along with the dedicated staff and volunteers who have made this event a reality.

I wish you a wonderful conference experience. May it be both rewarding and fun!

Sincerely,

Tasha Maddison
Conference Planning Committee Chair

WELCOME

Conference 2019 - Welcome

Welcome to the 2019 Saskatchewan Library Association! We are excited to host the annual conference in downtown Saskatoon as spring approaches.

This year's conference offerings are vast and varied. The Conference Program Committee has worked diligently and faithfully to ensure that there are sessions to accommodate a wide variety of interests and professional foci. The research stream is of particular note this year, as we are thrilled to have academic librarianship at the forefront of our sessions.

Our featured speakers have a wide array of experiences and stories sure to captivate and enliven passion and enthusiasm for inclusion, diversity and celebration of the unique lives and stories that we all live.

The panelists and presenters will share their wisdom and practice in many different areas and topics of social and cultural experiences and issues that will help enrich our work in and among Saskatchewan libraries.

As well as attending the sessions, please be sure to attend the Presidents' Reception and the Exhibitors' Social. We hope you take the time to connect with your colleagues and friends in these more casual settings.

Thanks to everyone who made this conference possible. The hours of planning and organizing is evident and much appreciated.

All the best for a stimulating and enriching conference experience.

Greetings from the Executive Director

Welcome to the 2019 Saskatchewan Libraries Conference: Libraries Transform! The annual conference is a significant professional development and networking event for SLA and the library community. Each year a theme is adopted and the program is shaped within that theme. This year provides the opportunity to explore transformation and libraries from a number of perspectives.

The Conference Planning Committee, the Board of Directors and SLA staff are pleased to have the wide range of delegates and presenters: SLA members, library staff and library leaders, educators, researchers, publishers, friends of libraries, trustees and special guests. During the conference you will have the opportunity to engage, network and explore the ongoing transformation of libraries and their potential for influence. Our sincere gratitude to our many sponsors and exhibitors whose contributions to this event are invaluable.

I invite you all to enjoy the exciting learning opportunities at our 2019 conference and making connections that will hopefully extend beyond the conference.

EMBRACE OUR AUTHENTIC SELF

Jack Saddleback is a Cree Two-Spirit Transgender gay man from the Samson Cree Nation in Maskwacis, Alberta. As the former President of the University of Saskatchewan Students' Union (USSU), Jack was the third Aboriginal person and first Transgender person to hold the role. Growing up as a genderqueer child, he faced bullying and discrimination at school and in his community; he was diagnosed with severe depression at the age of 14 and struggled for years to reach a stage of recovery. Eventually coming out as transgender at the age of 18, Jack healed through the help of his traditional Cree ceremonies in conjunction with conventional therapy.

Jack has sat on various committees and councils, two of which being the Mental Health Commission of Canada's youth council and the National Indigenous Youth Council on Sexual Health and HIV/AIDS. He openly advocates for Indigenous engagement, mental health, gender and sexual diversity, Two-Spirit issues, sexual health, and HIV & AIDS.

IT'S ABOUT PRIORITIES: PUBLIC LIBRARIES AND SOCIAL JUSTICE

Every day public libraries make choices about the services they provide: who will be served, what those services will be and how they will be delivered, when they will be offered and where. However, when it comes to advancing social justice in and through public libraries, the question that must first be asked and answered is: why? And in order to arrive at an answer, a rigorous inventory of a public library's priorities must take place.

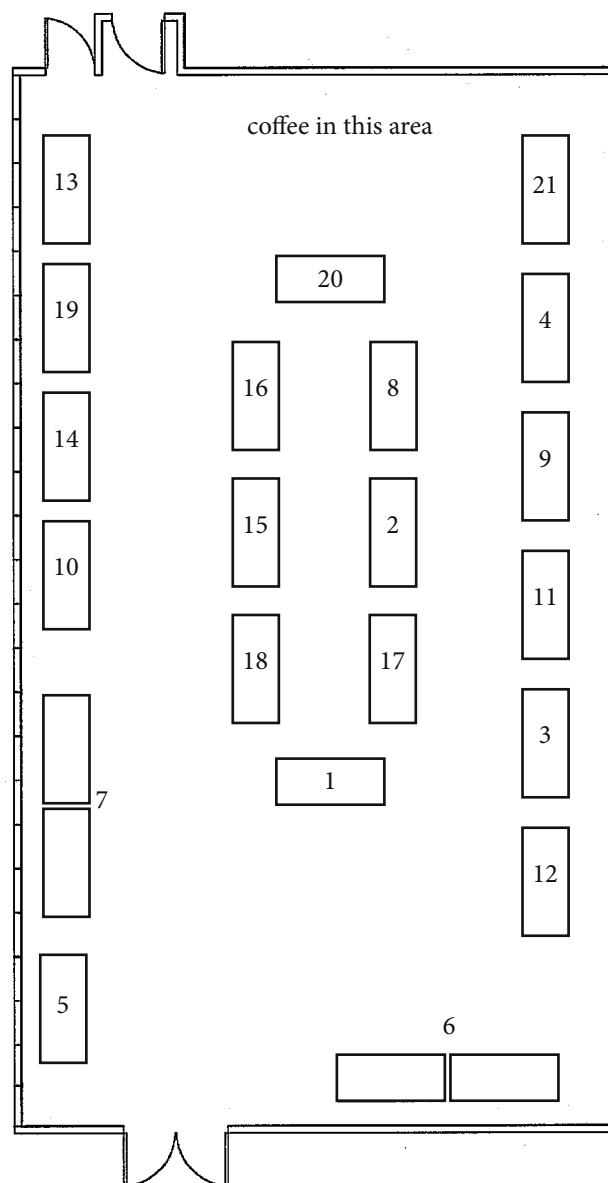

Monique will share thoughts about what such an inventory could involve and how public libraries and library workers might (re)think through the work they undertake in a time of increasing inequality and social change of all kinds.

A librarian with Winnipeg Public Library since 2007, Monique Woroniak is a frequent presenter in the areas of community development and anti-racist approaches to service delivery—specifically, the ways non-Indigenous organizations can responsibly learn and take direction from Indigenous peoples.

AWARDS

Maureen Woods Education Bursary

This $5000 bursary was made possible by a generous donation from the Saskatchewan Provincial Library & Literacy Office (a branch of the Ministry of Education) and through the efforts of the Multitype Library Board and the Saskatchewan Library Association (SLA). Established in 2002, this bursary was created to promote the continued growth of professional librarianship in the province of Saskatchewan. SLA is honoured to administer this bursary.

Mary Donaldson Award of Merit

The Mary Donaldson Award of Merit was established in 1977 to provide a bursary to a full-time or part-time Saskatchewan student who is enrolled in a Library and Information Technology (LIT) Program offered by a Canadian post-secondary educational institution. The Mary Donaldson Award, along with the annual Mary Donaldson Memorial Lecture, was established in 1966 to honour the memory of Mary Donaldson, who was Saskatchewan's first Provincial Librarian from 1951 until her death in 1966.

The Mary Donaldson Award is supported yearly by individual members of the Association, library boards, library associations, library trustees and friends of Mary Donaldson.

SLA Frances Morrison Award

Frances Morrison joined the staff of the Saskatoon Public Library in 1943 and was the Chief Librarian from 1961 to 1980. During the time she was with the library, she saw the library staff grow from 13 to more than 90. As Chief Librarian she directed the construction of two new branches, including the branch that bears her name. In 1981 she was awarded the Canadian Library Association's Outstanding Service to Librarianship Award. In 1999 she received the Saskatchewan Order of Merit for her contributions to library services in Saskatchewan. In 1982, Frances Morrison joined with SLA in creating this award. The SLA Frances Morrison Award is an award of merit for outstanding service to libraries given in the name of one of Saskatchewan's exceptional librarians. This award is open to all individuals, institutions or groups, and is not restricted to professional librarians or SLA members.

Honourary Life Membership Award

The Honourary Life Membership Award is conferred upon anyone who has made a substantial and recognizable long-standing contribution to SLA and/or library service in Saskatchewan. As a member of SLA for life, the recipient has full voting privileges, does not pay annual dues, receives all communications, and may serve on committees. As well, this membership entitles the recipient to discounts at all SLA functions and workshops.
